Caring for You & Your Budget — Speaker Notes

Friday, November 13, 2026 · 6:30–7:15 PM CT · Live on Zoom. Teaching runs about 35 minutes (slides in order), then questions to minute 45. Read the notes in your own words — they are a guide, not a script.

Slide 1 — Title / Welcome

[Minutes 0–2] Welcome everyone. Say: November is Family Caregivers Month, so tonight has two parts — caring for YOU, and your budget, because the money side of caring is heavy too. A thankful night: thank you for all you do. No cost, no sales pitch. Questions at the end; registered questions first.

Slide 2 — Tonight's Road Map

[Minutes 2–3] Read the road map. Everything tonight can be done from home — one list, one page, one call.

Slide 3 — You Matter in This Picture

[Minutes 3–6] Speak from the heart and slow down. Many parents never hear this out loud. This is why the night starts with them, not forms.

Slide 4 — Signs You Are Running on Empty

[Minutes 6–9] Read slowly and let it land. If they nodded at two or more, tonight is for them. Running on empty is normal for caregivers — not weakness.

Slide 5 — Make Medication Time Easier

[Minutes 9–14] Medication stress is daily stress. The clean list ends the guessing. And the check looks for programs that can lower costs — that bridges us into the budget part.

Slide 6 — Budget Part: Know Your Numbers

[Minutes 14–19] Gentle and plain. One page of bills is the first step of every budget we build with a family. Tonight they learn the step; if they want help doing it, that is what our budget sessions are for — no prices tonight.

Slide 7 — Call and Ask: What They Don't Advertise

[Minutes 19–25] This is the secret of the night: asking works. One call can free up money every single month. Families are never told this — companies wait for you to ask.

Slide 8 — Small Steps That Add Up

[Minutes 25–28] Encourage, don't overwhelm. Budgeting for caregiving families is one call and one page at a time.

Slide 9 — Where Help Lives

[Minutes 28–32] The giving part of the night. 2-1-1 is the front door to local help. Save the number in your phone tonight.

Slide 10 — One Small Step This Week

[Minutes 32–35] One step, not ten. Then questions.

Slide 11 — Questions

[Minutes 35–45] Registered questions first, as promised. Keep group answers general; private details belong in the free talk.

Slide 12 — Thank You — and Happy Thanksgiving!

[Close] Thank them warmly. Happy Thanksgiving. The medication check and first talk are free — we are here when they are ready.
