How you start

Step 1 — Intake. Fill out the intake and tap the button for the service you choose.
Step 2 — Pay, only where there is a fee. The free services have no pay step. Credit Repair is $149.00, paid when you start. Social Security guidance time is $40.00 for a 30-min session, paid when you book it.
Step 3 — Your choice. Book your appointment, or send us your questions and we will answer by email.

1. Free Services

The Social Security Administration starter kits and the Watch & Learn videos are free.

Social Security Administration starter kit first: for Social Security Administration help, you start with the free starter kit that fits you — the Child Starter Kit (17 and under) or the Adult Starter Kit (18 plus). The kit shows you what to gather and asks a few short questions. We will email you the next step. The starter kit does not decide your case; Social Security Administration decides in writing.

• Social Security Administration Application Guidance — Free form to start. Step-by-step guidance to apply for SSI, SSDI & DAC. We show you the steps and guide you as you apply; you file your own application. You get a free form that shows you how to start your application. If you want Jessica to guide you, a guidance session is $40.00 for 30 mins.
• Watch & Learn Videos — FREE. Jessica's teaching videos: how to apply for Social Security Administration benefits, turning 18, medication assistance, money management, and more.
• Life Insurance Consultation and Quote — FREE until you agree to a policy. A clear, no-pressure talk about protecting your family, including Living Benefits. You pay nothing for the consultation or the quote; you only pay if you agree to a policy.

Families can also find us through our partner 2-1-1 Texas (dial 2-1-1).

2. Credit Repair — Analyze + 1 Dispute — $149.00

Price: $149.00 one-time, paid in full when you start. If you pay by Square link, Square adds a 3.5% service charge ($149.00 becomes $154.22).

What the Provider will do: (1) Review your credit reports from all 3 bureaus (Equifax, Experian, TransUnion) and complete a credit analysis; (2) identify items that appear inaccurate, outdated, or unverifiable and explain them in plain words; (3) prepare 1 dispute for your approval — you review, sign, and mail your own letters; (4) give you clear mailing instructions and copies of everything prepared; (5) review the bureau's answer with you (bureaus have 30 to 45 days to investigate) and plan the next step together.

What you need to get started: this signed agreement; a copy of your government photo ID (driver's license, state ID, or passport); a copy of your Social Security card; proof of your current address dated within the last 60 days (utility bill, bank statement, or lease); your credit reports from all 3 bureaus — free at AnnualCreditReport.com (never share your credit report login or password with anyone, including us — only send the report files); and any letters you have from collectors or credit bureaus, if you have them.

What the Client will do — your rules during credit repair: provide true and complete information; forward any letters from bureaus, creditors, or collectors within 5 days; and, while you are in credit repair, you must:

- Not be late on any payment;
- Not pull your credit for a purchase — no new credit applications or hard pulls;
- Not get any new loans.

If any of these happen, your credit repair services will be cancelled. There is no refund for work already done.

Your rights — please read (federal law)

Under the Credit Repair Organizations Act (CROA): you may dispute inaccurate information in your credit report yourself, for free, by contacting the credit bureaus directly. No one can remove accurate, current information from your report, and no one can guarantee a specific result or a specific credit score. Creating a new credit identity by applying for credit under a different name, Social Security number, or taxpayer ID is a federal crime — this Provider will never do it or advise it. You have the right to a free credit report every week from each bureau at AnnualCreditReport.com, and to sue a credit repair organization that violates your rights under CROA. You may cancel this agreement, without penalty, within 3 business days of signing (see the cancellation notice below).

Authorization

By signing, you authorize the Provider to: obtain and review your credit reports for the purpose of the service you chose; prepare dispute letters for the items you approve, which you sign and mail yourself; and help you communicate with the credit bureaus, creditors, and collectors about those disputes. This authorization stays in effect while your service is active and may be withdrawn in writing at any time.

Signatures

■ Yes — I have read this agreement, I chose my service on the intake, and I authorize the work above.

Cancellation notice (your copy)

You may cancel this agreement at any time before midnight of the third business day after you sign it. To cancel, email southernoakfw@gmail.com and say you are cancelling your Client Services Agreement, with your name and the date you signed. If you cancel within that time, you owe nothing for services not yet performed; any service already fully performed before your notice will be explained to you in writing. Questions? Email southernoakfw@gmail.com before you sign — we are happy to explain any part of it.
