Your Steps — Child Only Plan

Your step-by-step sheet for your child's benefits. Do the steps in order, and check the box each time you finish one. Keep this sheet in your folder.

1	Get your child's papers together One folder with: birth certificate, Social Security card, your photo ID, proof of where you live, a list of your child's doctors with addresses and phone numbers, hospital and clinic visits, school records, a list of medicines, your pay or income papers, and bank papers. Check the box when the folder is ready.	☐
2	Set up your ID.me account Social Security uses ID.me to prove who you are online. Set it up before you start, and keep your password in your folder.	☐
3	Start the application online Go to ssa.gov and start your child's application. Most of the answers come from the intake you filled out with us — keep it next to you as you type.	☐
4	SAVE your Reference # When you start, you get a Reference #. Write it on this sheet (below) and in your folder. It is how you get back into your application. Do not lose it.	☐
5	Finish and send it Answer every part, check your answers once, and send it. Write the date you sent it below.	☐
6	Know what happens next Social Security reads your application. They may call you, ask for more papers, or set a check-up exam for your child — if they do, Social Security pays for that exam, not you. Open every letter they send and answer fast.	☐
7	Check your child's medication — FREE Step 1: check GoodRx (goodrx.com). Step 2: check Cost Plus Drugs (costplusdrugs.com). Step 3: ask us about maker help — if the medicine is on our list, we give you the forms for free.	☐
8	If you get a NO — act fast Email southernoakfw@gmail.com right away. Do not let the appeal deadline pass. We will connect you with special needs attorneys — no upfront fee; they are paid only if you win.	☐

Need help filing? SSA Filing Help is $50 total: Jessica guides you on Zoom while YOU file — up to 4 hours of guidance included, until your filing is done. Need more time after that? $10 for every extra 30 minutes. Email southernoakfw@gmail.com to start.
