Items Needed for Your Consultation

Gather what you can before your appointment and have it nearby on Zoom. Do not mail originals, and do not email us copies yet unless we ask — this list is so nothing slows us down.

For everyone: government photo ID, Social Security card, and this intake form, filled out.

For SSA benefits: any letters from SSA (approvals, denials, appointment notices); names of doctors, clinics, and hospitals; medication list (names and doses); school records and latest IEP/FIE/ARD (for a child); work history for the last 15 years (for an adult claim); your full Social Security earnings record (see below).

For medication assistance: medication list with doses and prescribing doctor; insurance or pharmacy discount cards, if any.

For credit repair: copies of your credit reports (all 3 bureaus, if you have them); any collection or credit bureau letters.

For life insurance: any current policy papers; a list of medications and health conditions.

How to Get Your Full Social Security Earnings Record

If your consultation is about SSA benefits, this record helps us see your full work history. It is free, and only YOU can get it — here is how:

Step 1. Go to ssa.gov and sign in to your my Social Security account. (Don't have one? Create it free at ssa.gov/myaccount — you must create it yourself; no one may create or use your account for you.)

Step 2. On your account home page, look for your earnings record and choose “Review your full earnings record now.”

Step 3. Print the record or save it as a PDF, and have it with you at your appointment.

Stay safe: the account is free, only use ssa.gov, and never share your password or sign-in codes with anyone — including us.

Please know: Southern Oak Financial & Wellness is not a law firm and does not give legal advice. Only the Social Security Administration, insurers, and assistance programs make approval decisions — there is no guarantee of approval. We do not provide refunds for services. Your first consultation is free, and any service or price is explained before you agree to anything. We meet by Zoom and work by email — we do not take appointments by phone.

I understand my intake must be emailed back before my appointment, and that my appointment will be rescheduled if it is not received.
